ONIRIQUE

GET ENCHANTED WITH NOVELTY

Wonderfully hand-drawn world of the Onirique wallpaper collection seduces spectators into a fanciful, dreamlike world of rich and often surprising juxtapositions.

Inspired by the idea of a surreal world of dreams and a unique sense of an atmospheric ambience, Onirique designs aim to transform one’s environment with novelty, delivering a personal path to daydream.

Fifteen eclectic designs draw spectators into a rich imaginary that can only be experienced through a dream-like journey. The soft and relaxing atmospheres of an interior decorated with panoramic designs, that blend retro taste and contemporary spirit with images spreading out on the surfaces expanding dimensions and impact, while seducing the look and amplifying sensations.

ONIRIQUE

Onirique is the result of a renewed collaboration between Decoprint, a prominent manufacturer and designer of wall-coverings, and Darlingmind Studio, a creative design studio built on the foundation of interior design expertise.

Darlingmind’s key value is centered around excellence in workmanship and artistry, and its mission is to make your home a focal point for both recovery and family life.

Ever since its founding in 1983, Decoprint has been known for its devotion to high quality wall-coverings. Based in Flanders, Decoprint matches sophisticated printing techniques with experience, tradition and creativity.

With the idea to work from house to Hotel, Decoprint and Darlingmind choose to print the Onirique collection on tactile and highly resistant vinyl wallpapers, which gives superior and long-lasting finishing, adding beauty and contemporary warmth to your home.
